Additional Psychology and Social Work Medicare Rebates under Better Access

As you may be aware, the Federal Government has temporarily increased the number of Psychology and Social Work (with an Accredited Mental Health Social Worker) sessions that can be rebated under the Better Access to Mental Health scheme, to a maximum of 20 sessions per calendar year for people who are experiencing severe or enduring mental health impacts from the COVID-19 pandemic. Previously the maximum was 10 per calendar year, and an additional 10 are now allowed if deemed appropriate by the referring GP.

Further information for clients and GPs can be found on our website at:

Perinatal Anxiety and Depression Awareness Week 8-14 November 2020

Perinatal Anxiety and Depression Awareness Week was established by PANDA in 2005, raising awareness about perinatal anxiety and depression, including what to look for and where to seek support.

PANDA (Perinatal Anxiety & Depression Australia) also have a national perinatal mental health helpline 1300 726 306 that operates from Monday to Friday, 9:00am to 7:30pm (AEST/AEDT) and provides counselling, support, information and referral. More information about PANDA can be found at www.panda.org.au

At The Hummingbird Centre our perinatal team of psychologists and accredited mental health social workers provide both individual and group support to assist parents throughout the perinatal period.

We can assist with things like:

- Perinatal mental health
- Childbirth preparation
- Birth trauma
- Infant bonding & attachment
- Parenting
- Enhancing child development
- Sleep-related anxiety
- Perinatal loss
- Couples conflict

Further information about the services that our perinatal team provide, along with some parenting resources, can be found at <http://hummingbirdcentre.com.au/psychology-services-warners-bay-broadmeadow/perinatal-clinic>

What's coming up at The Hummingbird Centre?

- Don't forget that on the 12th of November we have an excellent online training opportunity with Tina Payne-Bryson presenting on Relationships, Behaviour, and an Integrated Brain. Dr Payne-Bryson is the New York Times bestselling author of The Whole-Brain Child (co-author) and No-Drama Discipline. Further information regarding this training can be found at <http://www.hummingbirdcentre.com.au/events/integrated-brain/>
- We recently had Jordan Foster, Clinical Psychologist and founder of ySafe, present an impressive and informative webinar on tech and gaming addiction. Jordan is recognised as one of Australia's foremost cyber safety experts, and won the 2020 Telstra Women in Business Emerging Leader Aware and the 2018 WA Young Achiever Aware. She has excellent resources and information on cyber safety for parents, professionals, organisations, and schools on her website at www.ysafe.com.au
- The end of the year is rapidly approaching and we already have some exciting training coming up for clients in 2021 including Cool Kids, Circle of Security Parenting, Building New Pathways for Parents and Carers, and Mums and Bubs Get Well for Wellbeing. We will bring you more information in coming newsletters. Meanwhile further information can be found at <http://www.hummingbirdcentre.com.au/events/classes-and-workshops-for-clients/>
- Plans are progressing for Psychologist Phil Bird's training on Building New Pathways for Professionals – Practical Strategies to Support Children who have experienced Developmental Trauma. If you missed the June webinars by Phil on Trauma Informed Care for the Developing Brain, a series of 3 x 2 hour training webinars for clinicians and professionals, you can purchase and view the webinars here: <http://www.hummingbirdcentre.com.au/events/mental-health-professionals-training-courses/building-new-pathways-for-professionals/>
- Kathy Steele, a world leader in the treatment of trauma and dissociation, has presented a series of webinars for mental health professionals on Advanced Topics in Developmental Trauma, which include Attachment and Dependency in the Therapeutic Relationship, Working with Chronic Shame, and Working with the Inner Critic.
